What Equipment is used?

All of the studio apparatus is available, this includes; reformer, cadillac, wunda chair, barrels, small apparatus and mat. All of the equipment is based on the original design from Joseph Pilates in the early 1900's. Joseph designed the equipment to assist his clients gain strength, control, flexibility and better posture. His innovative formula is successful across the world for dancers to boxers; horse-riders to runners; new and expecting mums to general health and fitness. The equipment will add spice to your workouts.

How many sessions should I do each week?

This is very individual, discuss with your practitioner and depending on your goals and availability of time an appropriate program will be made specific for you.

What are the qualifications of the Instructors?

Pilates Room specialists have undergone extensive Pilates training on mat and equipment based Pilates and receive continual guidance, ongoing training and evaluations.

I have an injury, can I participate in Pilates?

Yes you can, however we like to discuss your injuries with your health practitioner to ensure we design a program in accordance to their goals and plans for you.

Can I participate if I am pregnant?

Yes, we have trainers highly experienced and qualified to guide you and your body through the pregnancy.

What should I wear?

Wear comfortable clothing of your choice with clean socks. No footwear is required. We also suggest you bring a bottle of water and a towel.

Testimonials

“Women worldwide have discovered the power of Pilates and have flocked to its studios in droves, writes Cathy Netherwood. Now pregnant women are discovering that this unique method of exercise is tailor-made for them ...”
-- Article published in Australian Parents magazine April/ May 2004 edition.

“A huge thank you for all of the energy and effort you expended in preparing and delivering the course. You are an AMAZING woman and your talents leave me in awe!! I really appreciate your dedication. Your genuine interest and concern for each and every one of us - gave us the energy and inspiration to continue when the going got tough. I now have an amazing sense of achievement for making it through. I feel that I have learned so much, but that it's just the tip of the iceberg. I have been inspired in such a positive way, thanks!” -- Marisa Lawlor

“Very comprehensive both from a theory and practical perspective.” -- Bertand Arlove

“Loved the course, awesome instruction, can't wait to teach Pilates.” -- Jucinda Bayne
